

PURE Project Birmingham

500
Image not found or type unknown

Birmingham City Council has secured funding from ESF to provide a new PURE project. Eight providers assist vulnerable client groups into training and employment.

FryAccord have set up a service to support offenders with significant support needs to offer wraparound one to one support. Pre employment group sessions are also arranged within FryAccord projects which will be extended out to other service providers.

30 people have signed up to this service so far and gaining C.V.s, suits for interviews, Preparation for interviews and work, training courses, qualifications and 3 are now working already.

Individuals need to reside in Birmingham and be over 29.

If you would like to refer somebody or for more information please email purebirmingham@fryaccord.org.uk

Download Poster

500
Image not found or type unknown